

Artist Led Workshops

dot-art Schools works with a wide range of artists to offer your school one-day artist-led workshops in a variety of different techniques, media and subjects. All our workshops are delivered by experienced artists with full DBS clearance and public liability insurance, and can be tailored to meet your specific requirements.

Artist	Faith Bebbington
Workshop	Bring a Book to Life
Details	A minimum two day workshop. Pupils will work with renowned local sculptor Faith Bebbington to create a recycled sculpture based on a character or scene from a story being read and explored in school. Teachers can help pupils develop their literacy skills in preparation for this practical, hands on session by reading and creative writing. Afterward the display could include pupil's stories and drawings with the sculptures created. The key materials pupils will be using are newspaper, cardboard, sticky tape, willow and wire. The number of days for the workshop depends on the nature of the story and how much detail you wish to depict from the book. Examples below show: “The Tin Forest” by Helen Ward and illustrated by Wayne Anderson, in two days Year 5 & 6 pupils created characters and part of the forest at Blackmoor Park Primary school. “Where the Wild Things are” by Maurice Sendak, freestanding character built in two days with Year 4 & 5 pupils at Our Lady of Perpetual Succour Catholic Primary School
